- 12.2 If the Lessee does alter, add to, or improve the Premises in any way, the Lessee must, if the Lessor requires it in writing, restore the Premises to its original condition after the lease terminates. The Lessor's request for restoration must be given no later than the thirty days after the Lessee has given the Premises back to the Lessor after termination of this lease. This clause must not be interpreted to exclude any other remedy which the Lessor may have for a breach by the Lessee of clause 13.1.
- 12.3 Except for any improvement which is removed from the Property as required by the Lessor in terms of clause 12.2, all improvements made on or to the Property will belong to the Lessor and may not be removed from the Property. The Lessee will never have any claim against the Lessor for compensation for any improvement or repair to the Property or the Lessor's Equipment, or a right of retention in respect of any improvements.

13 EXCLUSION OF LESSOR FROM CERTAIN LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

- 13.1 The Lessee will have no claim for damages against the Lessor and may not withhold or delay any payment due to the Lessor by reason directly or indirectly of:
- a breach by the Lessor of any of its obligations under this lease;
  - any act or omission of the Lessor or any agent or servant of or contractor to the Lessor, whether or not negligent, or otherwise actionable at law, and including (without limiting the generality of the above) any act or omission of any cleaner, maintenance person, handyman, artisan, labourer, workman, watchman, guard, or commissionaire (uniformed worker);
  - the condition or state of repair at any time of the Property, the Buildings, or any part of the Property or the Buildings;
  - any failure or suspension of, or any interruption in, the supply of water, electricity, gas, air-conditioning, heating, or any other amenity or service to the Property or any of the Buildings, whatever the cause;
  - any breakdown of, or interruption in the operation of, any:
    - machinery;
    - plant;

    - system,in or on, or serving, the Property or any part of it or any of the Buildings, including any plant or any:
  - geyser;
  - boiler;
  - burglar alarm, or security installation or system.
- 13.2 The Lessor is, however, not excused from specific performance of any of its obligations under this lease, whether express or implied. This particularly refers to its obligations to give the Lessee occupation and enjoyment of the Premises and to do maintenance and repairs as set out in this Agreement and:

- if the Lessor fails to carry out any such obligation of maintenance or repair with reasonable speed or efficiency, and
- persists in such default after receiving reasonable notice in writing to do so,
- the Lessee may do or cause the necessary maintenance or repair (including any incidental or necessary replacement) and
- may then recover the reasonable cost of this from the Lessor on demand.

14 LESSOR'S RIGHTS OF ENTRY AND CARRYING OUT OF WORKS

14.1 The Lessor's representatives, agents, employees and contractors may at all reasonable times, without it giving rise to any claim or right of action on the part of the Lessee or any other occupier of the Premises:

- enter the leased Premises in order to:
  - inspect them,
  - carry out any necessary repairs, replacements, or other works, or
  - to perform any other lawful function in the bona fide(good faith) interests of the Lessor or any of the occupiers of the Property; or
- carry out any necessary repairs, replacements or other works elsewhere in the Building or on the Property, but the Lessor must ensure that this right is exercised with regard for and a minimum of interference with the beneficial enjoyment of the Premises by those who occupy it.

14.2 The Lessor may not, however, cause or allow any major building works to be carried out anywhere on the Property for longer than 6 months from the date on which the building starts unless:

- such works are necessary and do not merely involve additions to the Building, the construction of additional buildings, or redecorations which are merely aesthetic (visual); or
- the Lessee has consented otherwise in writing.

15 DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES

15.1 If the Premises are destroyed or so damaged that they can no longer be beneficially occupied, this lease will terminate when that happens, unless the parties agree in writing otherwise.

15.2 If the Premises are significantly damaged but can still be beneficially occupied, this lease will continue and the Lessor must repair the damage without delay. The rent must then be abated (lessened) to compensate the Lessee fairly for the effects on the enjoyment of the Premises of the damage and repair work.

- If there is no agreement about the abatement or application of the above clause to any particular circumstances, the parties must refer the matter to an expert appointed jointly by the parties jointly. If however they cannot agree on the appointment of a person, the President of the Institute of Estate Agents of South Africa will appoint one and the decision of such expert will be final and binding.

- The expert's fees and disbursements, including any inspection costs, must be paid by the parties in equal shares.
  - Pending determination of the abatement the Lessee must continue to pay the full rent for the Premises as if they had not been damaged (or be excused from the payment of rent for the Premises), and as soon as the matter has been resolved the Lessor must make the appropriate repayment to the Lessee (or the Lessee shall make up the arrears in the rent as abated).
- 15.3 If either of the Parties caused any damage or destruction to the Premises, the other may still pursue another alternative or additional action or remedy, despite clauses 15.1 and 15.2.

16 SPECIAL REMEDY FOR BREACH

- 16.1 In the event that the Lessee defaults in any payment due under this lease or breaches any other terms which can be construed as a material failure by the lessee to comply with the provisions of the lease, and fails to remedy such default or breach within 20 business days after receiving a written demand that it be remedied, the lease will be deemed to have been cancelled without further notice and the Lessor may will be entitled to take back possession of the Premises and recover damages from the Lessee, which will include rental payments until such time as a replacement lessee is found, as well as the Lessee's attorneys fees on an attorney and client scale, together with interest and collection commission, without affecting any other rights or remedies the Lessor may have.
- 16.2 If the Lessor cancelled this lease justifiably but the Lessee remains in occupation of the Premises, with or without disputing the cancellation, and continues pay rent and any other amounts which would have been payable to the Lessor if it was not for the cancellation, the Lessor may accept these payments without prejudice to and without affecting the cancellation, as if they had been payments on account of the damages suffered by the Lessor by reason of the Lessee's unlawful occupation.

17 CANCELLATION OF LEASE

- 17.1 The lease shall expire on the last date mentioned in paragraph 4 above and the Lessor shall send a notice to the Lessee advising him of the expiry of the Lease. This notice will be sent not more than 80 and not less than 40 business days before the lease terminates.
- 17.2 If the lease is not terminated by the Lessor in terms of paragraphs 16.1 or 17.1 above, or by the Lessee in terms of 17.4 below, then the lease will continue automatically on a month-to-month basis upon the same terms and conditions, except for the rental which will be increased as set out in paragraphs 5.1.2 and 5.2 above. In the event of the lease continuing as aforesaid, either the Lessor or the Lessee may give the other party 1 (one) month's notice to terminate the lease.
- 17.3 The lease will however, not continue automatically as aforesaid while the Lessee is in breach or default of any of the terms of this lease.
- 17.4 The Lessee may cancel the lease at any time during the Lease Period by giving the Lessor 20 business days' notice in writing, provided that the Lessee shall, in such event, be liable to pay to the Lessor on or before the date upon which the lease shall end in terms of the early termination, a reasonable cancellation penalty equal to the following, which the Lessee agrees to be reasonable in the circumstances:

% Lease Period Remaining	Notice given	Cancellation Fee to be paid by TENANT
> 50%	Between 20 and 40 business days	3 x monthly rent + all rent and services up to termination + any damages to the premises.
> 50%	More than 40 business days	2,5 x monthly rent + all rent and services up to termination + any damages to the premises.
< 50%	Between 20 and 40 business days	2 x monthly rent + all rent and services up to termination + any damages to the premises.
< 50%	More than 40 business days	1,5 x monthly rent + all rent and services up to termination + any damages to the premises.

17.5 The Lessor, acting diligently, will try his best to find another tenant for the remaining period of the Lease. The Lessee will be allowed to assist the Lessor to find a new tenant for the premises in order to minimize the cancellation fee. Any such replacement tenant must, however, comply with the screening- and creditworthiness criteria of the Lessor.

17.6 In the event of the Lessee vacating the premises before an acceptable replacement tenant could be found, the cancellation fee will become due on the date of exit and the Lessee expressly authorizes the Lessor to deduct such amount from the deposit and undertakes to immediately pay any shortfall due. If an acceptable replacement tenant is found before the Lessee vacates, no cancellation fee will be charged and the Lessee will only be liable to pay for all rent and services up to the date of termination of the Lease.

18 NEW TENANTS AND PURCHASERS

The Lessee must at all reasonable times

18.1 during the Lease Period, allow prospective purchasers of the Property or of any shares or other interests in the Lessor; and

- 25.1 This lease will not terminate with the death of either the Lessor or the Lessee. The executor of the deceased Lessee's estate will have the option, depending upon the circumstances of the estate, either to:
- abide by the contract for the remainder period of the lease (the successor or successors of the Lessee assuming his rights and obligations) or

Lessor written notice. If the trustee does not within three Months of his appointment as trustee notify the Lessor that he wants to continue with the lease on behalf of the estate, he will be deemed to have terminated the lease at the end of the three Months.
